

Please read for your safety!

Do not directly connect the positive terminal ("plus") and the negative terminal ("minus") of a battery.

This is called "short-circuit" and it is very dangerous.

Do not directly connect an LED to the battery, or create a similar circuit using breadboard.

This is like a "short-circuit" and it is very dangerous.

- Always follow the directions by your instructor
- Please do not experiment unless permitted by your instructor.

Please write your name after reading this safety notices.

Your Name	Date